MOBILE COMICS FACTORY UPDATE

The Mobile Comics Factory continues this academic year. Currently working in St Eanswythe's with more sessions being booked. There are also new opportunities through working with other youth clubs.

On Saturday October 7th I will be running a special Mobile Comics Factory event that links with my art practice. Working close to the triennial HQ I will be inviting young people to take part in a 3-panel comic challenge, at the same time visitors will be able to watch me attempt to create a 24 page comic in 24 hours!
